Fund Objective

The State Street Total Return V.I.S. Fund (the "Fund") seeks to provide the highest total return, composed of current income and capital appreciation, as is consistent with prudent investment risk.

Key Features

- Team based decision making by experienced investment professionals

Process

The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by constructing a broadly diversified portfolio that provides exposure to three primary asset classes either directly or indirectly through investment in exchange-traded funds ("ETFs"), including ETFs that pay fees to SSGA Funds Management, Inc. ("SSGA FM" or the "Adviser"), the Fund's investment adviser, and its affiliates for management, marketing or other services: (1) U.S. and foreign (non-U.S.) equity securities (the "Equity Class"); (2) U.S. and foreign (non-U.S.) debt securities (the "Fixed Income Class"); and (3) alternative-style investments (the "Alternative Class"). SSGA FM allocates the Fund's assets among the following sub-asset classes in proportions consistent with the potential returns and risks of each sub-asset class as well as the allocations that, in SSGA FM's view, will best meet the Fund's investment objective.

Under normal circumstances, the Fund anticipates maintaining an overall strategic target allocation range of 50-70% of its assets in the Equity Class, 30-50% of its assets in the Fixed Income Class and 0-5% of its assets in the Alternative Class. SSGA FM reviews these target allocations at least annually and may make changes over time when it believes it is beneficial to the Fund, including, but not limited to, adding or removing sub-asset classes or underlying ETFs, changing the sub-asset class target allocations, or maintaining the target allocations for longer or shorter periods of time. In addition, SSGA FM may from time to time make tactical adjustments to the Fund's allocation to a particular sub-asset class to pursue short to intermediate term opportunities based on a broad range of market and economic conditions, and a combination of quantitative and fundamental inputs. As a result of these tactical adjustments, the Fund's actual allocations may deviate from the overall strategic target allocations and, during certain periods, such deviations may be significant.

SSGA FM employs an "indexing" investment approach to assets allocated to the Equity, Fixed Income and Alternative Classes. SSGA FM divides the Classes into the sub-classes described above, and for each sub-class seeks to track the performance of an applicable market index. Under this investment approach, the Fund invests directly or through investment in ETFs either (1) in substantially all of the securities in an index in approximately the same proportion as the index (a "replication" strategy) or (2) in a representative sample of securities that collectively has an investment profile similar to an index (a "representative sampling" strategy). In a representative sampling strategy, the securities selected are expected to have, in the aggregate, investment characteristics (based on factors such as market capitalization and industry weightings), fundamental characteristics (such as return variability and yield) and liquidity measures similar to those of the index, and the Fund might or might not hold, directly or through investment in ETFs, all of the securities that comprise the index. For additional information regarding the investment process used to manage the Classes, including the sub-asset classes and applicable market indices, see the "More on the Underlying Investment Indices of the State Street Total Return V.I.S. Fund" section of this Prospectus.

SSGA FM may gain exposure to the various sub-asset classes by investing directly in individual securities or through investment in ETFs managed by SSGA FM or its affiliates as well as those managed by unaffiliated investment managers. The Fund (or the ETFs in which the Fund invests) may also use derivative instruments (including options, futures contracts, options on futures, interest rate swaps, credit default swaps, and forward contracts) to gain or hedge exposure to a certain type of security or broad-based index as an alternative to investing directly in or selling such type of security or the securities representing such index.

The Fund may hold cash or invest in money market instruments, principally for the preservation of capital, income potential or maintenance of liquidity.

Considering the risks: A principal risk of investing in the Fund is the risk that the value of equity securities may decline. Special risks are associated with investing in foreign securities including currency fluctuations, economic instability and political developments. Securities with different characteristics tend to shift in and out of favor depending upon market and economic conditions. While stocks have historically outperformed other asset classes, over the long term they tend to fluctuate over the short term as a result of factors affecting the individual companies, industries or the securities market as a whole. Bond prices generally move in the opposite direction of interest rates. Thus, as the prices of bonds in the Fund adjust to a rise in interest rates, the Fund's share price may decline. These and other risk considerations are discussed in the Fund's prospectus and summary prospectus.

The fund is only available through variable annuity and variable life contracts offered by other financial institutions. Shares of the fund are not offered directly to the public. Variable annuities have fees and charges that include mortality and expense, administrative fees, contract fees, and expenses associated with the underlying investment options.

The Fund's investments are subject to changes in general economic conditions, general market fluctuations and the risks inherent in investment in securities markets. Investment markets can be volatile and prices of investments can change substantially due to various factors including, but not limited to, economic growth or recession, changes in interest rates, changes in the actual or perceived creditworthiness of issuers, and general market liquidity. The Fund is subject to the risk that geopolitical events will disrupt securities markets and adversely affect global economies and markets. Local, regional or global events such as war, acts of terrorism, the spread of infectious illness or other public health issues, or other events could have a significant impact on the Fund and its investments.
